PETITIONING THE COURT

To withdraw petition for warrant dated April 25, 2012, and vacate revocation hearing scheduled for June 8, 2012.

RE: JERROD CAMPBELL

CAUSE

The purpose of this report is to respectfully request a withdrawal of the violation petition seeking revocation against Campbell that was submitted by this office on April 25, 2012; and to vacate the revocation hearing scheduled before Your Honor for June 8, 2012. The basis of the petition was that Campbell failed to refrain from the use and possession of beer, wine, liquor, and other forms of intoxicants. After further investigation by the probation office, it appears that there are conflicting documents in reference to the positive alcohol test on April 22, 2012. In addition, the probation office recently learned that on May 7, 2012, Campbell was given another alcohol test, at the Residential Reentry Center, and the breathalyzer machine was experiencing functional difficulties. Although the probation office does not believe this is directly correlated to Campbell's positive alcohol test on April 22, 2012, it does call into question the validity of the test. In speaking with the Assistant United States Attorney's office, they agree that there is insufficient evidence, at this point, to proceed forward with the revocation hearing. As such, the probation office respectfully requests that the violation petition be withdrawn, the revocation hearing be vacated, and that Campbell be continued on home confinement with GPS monitoring for six months as agreed upon during his revocation hearing on April 18, 2012.

It should be noted that the probation office recently learned that Campbell was taken into custody, following his initial appearance, by the Las Vegas Deputy Marshals for Failure to Appear-Driving Without a Valid License and Failure to Appear-Open Alcoholic Container in Vehicle. When questioned by the probation office, Campbell advised that these citations were originally issued to his son, who is also named Jerrod Campbell, and not him. The probation office will continue to investigate into this matter along with monitor Campbell's behavior and notify the Court immediately of any further violations.

Respectfully submitted,

MICHELLE L. CRAVOTTA
United States Probation Officer
